

NEW YORK, N.Y.

Local No. 1

Election time is here. May the best men win.

Work is very slow in New York City with all companies. It looks like it won't break for a while.

Some news from the North Country:

On March 15, the Bronx service department held a St. Patrick's Day party. Thirty mechanics, along with Brothers Watson and Machia, attended.

We would like to welcome Brother Carall to the Bronx office. He was transferred up from the World Trade Center.

Dick Black is back to work after his protracted illness. He looks and feels great.

Arty Miller, Jr., was stopped on the street and was told to, "Hand over your tools, turn around, start walking and don't look back." Arty did the right thing and he's still around to joke about it.

"Yes, Virginia, there really is a Vinny De Stasio."

Thanks, Marty McCarthy for this news: Tony Huskins was married on March 2, 1974 at the "Ripples" in Whitestone, Queens. He married the Newly weds Tony and Eileen Huskins.

Among the Huskins wedding guests were these representatives from Local #1.

formed Eileen Fernandez. Best man was Phil Sergio, a Local No. 1 man. Also in attendance from Local No. 1 were Don Devilin, Joe Slavic and Martin Denenberg. A great time by all.

Bob Kirchner, Sr., retired after 40 years in the business. Walter Bilsky's favorite shop steward. Bob Hersfield catered the affair. Bob received a tennis racket. Tom Connolly was also there for the happy time.

There are chance books in the mail. Please support this worthy cause. Mail all returns to Brother Marty Hale, 1954 - 81st, Jackson Heights, N.Y.

Bill Martin has been made the father of twin boys, George and Steven, 6 lbs. 6 ozs. and 6 lbs. 9 ozs. Congratulations.

Herb Hans has started a new 10-car job of Otis at 168th Street. With him on this job are Bob Sliskinsky, Ray Martin and Dom Regina.

We would like to wish Robert Kirchner, Jr. a lot of enjoyment in his retirement.

Reported sick this month are: Harry Schafer, Regionald Warren, Robet Knudsen, Pete Ward, Kenneth Bone, John Diepl, John McGonegal, Dan Sheppard, John Stack, Hohn Sullivan, Robert Flannagan, Henry Usinger. We hope you are all well soon.

We would like to extend our sympathy to the family and friends of Nick Stanton, Sr. and George Facon.

Please send all information for the Journal to 15 Wittman Lane, Brentwood, New York 11717, telephone (516) 273-3371.

Ed. Kristan